TO THE STUDENTS of FRENSHIP RURAL HIGH SCHOOL:

Frenship High School has many activities of which I am justly proud. The TIGER YEAR BOOK is one of these. I am truly grateful that we have students and sponsors who possess that fine quality of character necessary to plan and produce this excellent yearbook. I wish to congratulate the class of 1953 for their many valuable contributions, and to express to them my sincere appreciation for all that they have done to help make Frenship High a Superior high school.

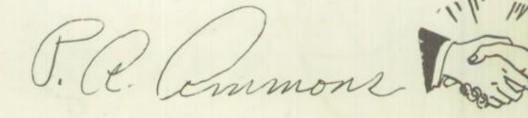

I wish to thank every student and teacher for your fine work, good citizenship, loyalty, and cooperation in making this school year so pleasant, profitable, and successful.

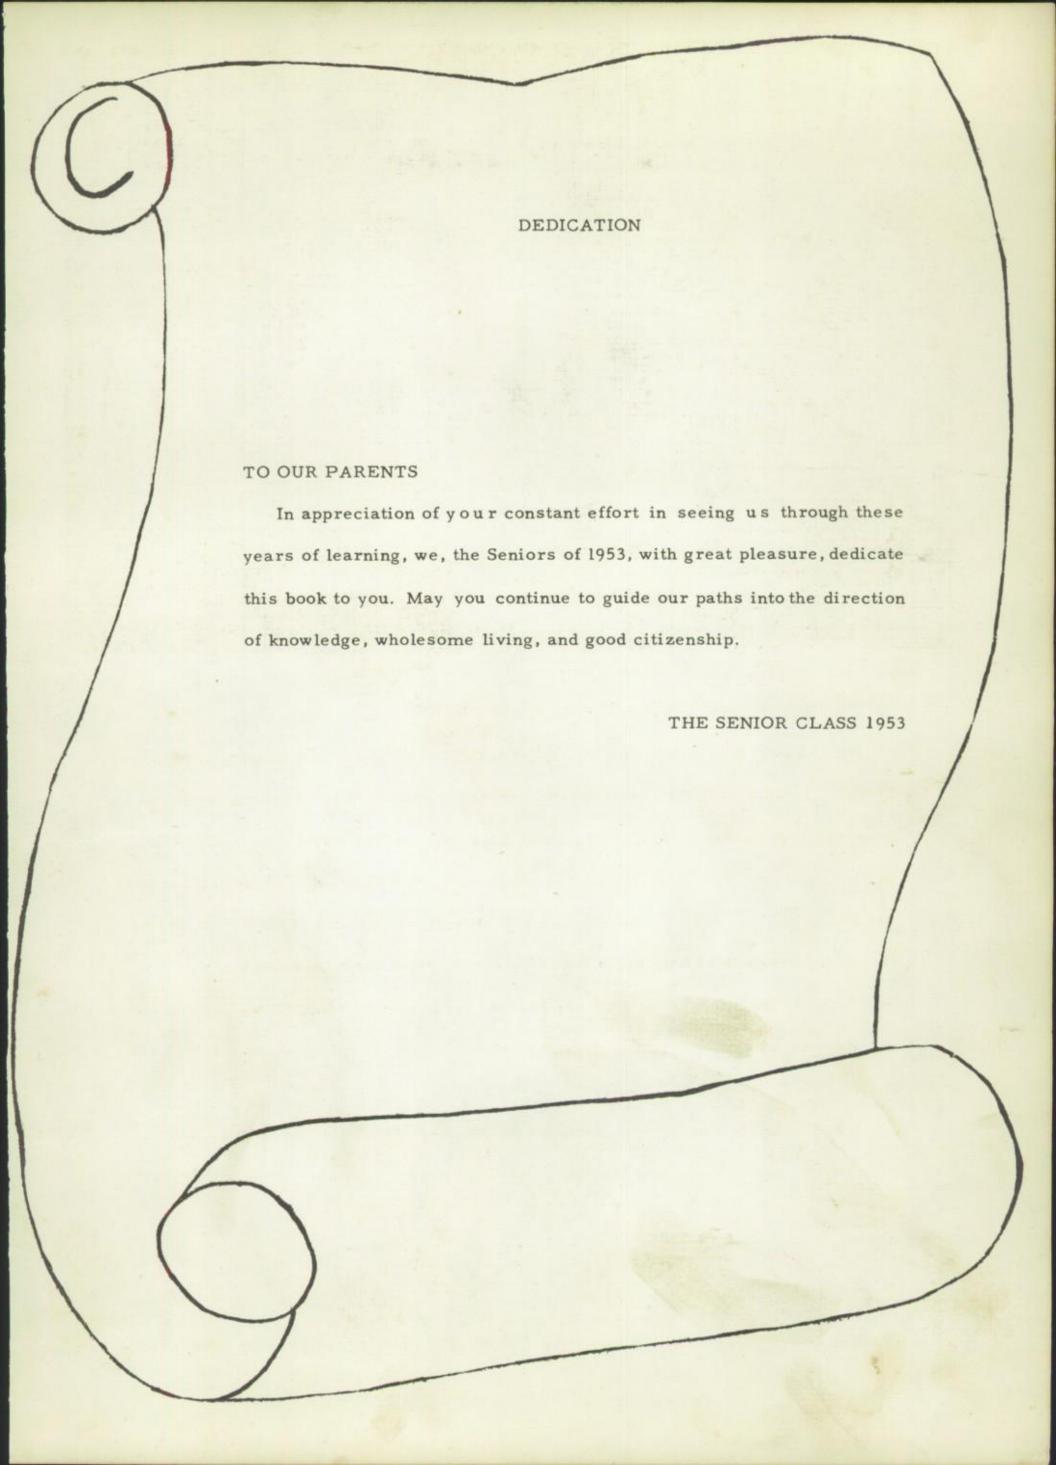

May I wish for each of you continued health, happiness, and success.

Your friend,

Frenship Rural High School

Frenship School District, comprising one hundred twenty-five square miles, is located in the southwest corner of Lubbock County. Before 1890 there were no permanent settlers in that portion of the South Plains that is now known as the Frenship School District.

In 1923 Wolfforth built a four room brick building, employed four teachers for the first time, and five years later was made an independent district composed of thirty-two square miles in area.

The Frenship Rural High School District No. 2 was formed from districts of Wolfforth, Carlisle, Foster, and Hurlwood.

In May of 1935, E.R. Haskins was given a contract as the first superintendent of the newly formed Rural High School District by the Board of Education composed of the following members: M. E. Casey, R. S. Hobgood, C. R. Moore, W. O. Lofland, E. L. Wheeler, Jim Bailey, and W. R. Price.

The Frenship Elementary School Building was erected in 1950. It is complete with twelve class-rooms, auditorium, sound system, electric bell, central heating system, and movie projector. The cost was $150,000.

The New Casey Elementary School Building

The above building was erected at a cost of $151,206. The building is located on a 20 acre plot of land. Ten acres of this land was bought by the school and ten acres was donated by Mr. M.E. Casey. The school was named for Mr. Casey because of this. The very modern structure houses the first three grades and consists of seven rooms and a cafeteria. The P.T.A. has put up a slide, swings, and a merry-go-round for the young children to enjoy during their recess periods.

Mr. Tom C. Holden, Principal

We, the Senior Class of 1953, wish to express our appreciation to you for making this year so enjoyable. Your pleasant personality and your cooperation during the school year will long be remembered and appreciated by each of us.

The stands are empty and the football field is bare. Only the school colors wave valiantly in the breeze. The football season of 1952 has ended and with it five of the finest boys in any high school have ended their football playing for Frenship High.

Just as those school colors are left as a reminder of the last game, may the courage and sportsmanship of these five senior boys remain long in the minds of those who knew them.

May the game of life, for all of them, prove as wholesome and noteworthy as the great games they played for Frenship High School.

A TYPICAL SENIOR GOSSIP SESSION!

CLASS WILL

Last will and testament of the Senior class of Frenship High School. We, being of sound mind (though doubted by some), and on the advice of a local psychiatrist, do hereby make this our last will and testament, to be added to all preceding wills and such documents.

ARTICLE I

Section I. We do hereby appoint Mrs. Rhyne and Mr. Holden as chief executives of this will to see that it is carried out to the fullest extent.

Section II. To the faculty we leave our excellent behavior, and all we have taught them to further educate the world.

Section III. To Mrs. Armstrong, we leave all we have taught her in the field of business administration, and sincerely hope she does not forget it before she has passed it on to some else.

Section IV; To the school board, we leave the teachers, since no one else will take them and we have no place to put them.

ARTICLE II

Section I. To the junior class we leave our ability to get along with teachers and other such characters they will meet in the coming years.

Section II.To the sophomoreswe leave our knowledge and understanding; due to the fact that they may get caught playing hookey and if such occasion arises they will need it badly.

Section III. To the very distinguished freshmen we leave allour knowledge of schools and how to run them without interference from teachers and other such characters.

ARTICLE III

We, the following members of the senior class do hereby leave to the insignificant members of the junior class the following:

- I, Billy John Walker, leave my whiskers, to Sammie Norman.
- I, Charles Lovell, since I have no whiskers, leave my bull-riding and throwing to Jack Carlisle.
- I, Leroy Patterson, leave my ability to drive an automobile safely and sanely to Billy John Haws and sincerely hope he puts it to good use.
- I, Jerry Hughes, do hereby leave my superior way with the women to Chris Jarrot and hope it does him as much good as it did me in my younger days.
- I, George Anna Meadors do hereby resolve to leave my ability to flirt with all living creatures to Virginia Lee Walker, since I made good use of it in Mr. Holden's history class.
- I, Don Davis, leave all my worldly possessions (Nora Ann) to anyone who is big enough to gether.
- I, Joy Isbell, leave my riding pants and educational books to Enola Whitworth.
- I, Pauline Perry will leave if Billy will come and get me, or anyone else for that matter.
- I, Horace Durham leave my ability as a left-handed driver to Carr Howard Barnett.
- I, Charlie Avants leave my way with the women to Donald Rackler who will need it if Mary Francis Sehon stays around long.
- I, Leta Altman leave my cute smile and attraction to male teachers to Mary Ann Coker and Kennie Jackson.
- I, Shirley Goodpasture leave all my worldly possessions in the form of two whiskey bottles to Beth Conway.
- I, Barbara Knott leave my cute dimples and winning ways to Jean Huckabee and Ada Pearl Reynolds.
- I, Sammy Hitt do hereby leave my knack to pick'em young and train'em like you like'em to Raymond Peek.
- I, Raymond Hitt leave my roving eyes and attraction to the female sex to Joe Ed Jobe.

- I, Rowena Dalton leave with Coy Max just as soon as I can.
- I, D'aun McNeely leave my ability to impress people in my peculiar actions and unpredictable manner to Leta Newton.
- I, Willa Vee Sage leave my ability to get along with Mrs. Armstrong to Evelyn Perry and Ruth McCrummen.
- I, Mona Goodpasture leave my books to anyone who will take them.
- I, Velma Berry leave with my husband any time he goes anywhere, or anywhere he goes.
- I, George Montgomery leave my ability to play hookey to Jack Gibson.
- I, Ansel Clary leave my ability to get my bookkeeping in on time to Melvin McDoughal.
- I, Joan Milliken will leave if I can get Bobby Henderson to take me away.
- I, Glenna Woods leave my ability to be neat at all times to all the girls in the Junior Class.
